AISSA

1. Aissa (Aisa) (Ai-sha) (Aisa-usoff), forty-five or forty-six years of age, is the head of a group of Uigurs that is working closely with the Central Government of China. He is a member of the Kuomintang, and at present has the title of "Director of the Uigur San Min Chu I Youth Corps of Sinkiang." He went to Nanking from Ti-hua (Urumchi) in 1932, and has since lived there most of the time. When CHANG Chih-chung went to Sinkiang on his mission of pacification (in September 1945), Aissa went along as an "inspector" from the Control Yuan. Aissa had considerable difficulty in persuading his fellow-Uigurs that he was their best leader, since he had spent so much of his time away from them. He is considered to have failed, at least temporarily, in his purpose of leading the Uigurs in a pro-Chinese attitude, becoming their Chinese-sponsored leader. According to one report, Aissa and Hazard Mohammed Iman (another Chinese-sponsored leader of the Uigurs) were at first welcomed by the Uigurs living in Ti-hua, but the attitude soon changed and went so far as to take the form of an angry demonstration against the two men.
2. Aissa gathered seven men, who presumably are already pro-Chinese, to accompany him on a tour of China. The object of this expedition seems to be to show the visitors the immensity and greatness of China compared to the smallness and backwardness of Sinkiang, to increase the personal prestige of Aissa with the Uigurs and with the Central Government, and to insure further propaganda support for Aissa and the Central Government. The party is also accompanied by Aissa's son and two Chinese Kuomintang members who are making the necessary arrangements for the group. The members of this party will undoubtedly be useful to Aissa and to the Central Government in propaganda work when they return to Ti-hua.
3. The group left Ti-hua about 15 August and proceeded via Lanchow to Kuling (the summer capital) where Aissa had several interviews with the Generalissimo. The party arrived in Peiping 28 September, and left for Tientsin on 7 October. They plan to go to Mukden, later returning to Peiping. From Peiping they will go to Shanghai, then to Nanking, and then return to Ti-hua via Lanchow.
